DEPARTURE OF THE REMAINS OF COL. VOSBURGH.—The corpse of the lamented Col. Vosburgh, of the New York seventy-first regiment, was visited yesterday morning by many officers of the army and navy, as well as by those of the various regiments now here. The body, which was encased in a neat walnut coffin, was laid out in the headquarters of the regiment, near the naval store, in the Navy Yard, the walls of the room in which it was laid being covered with national flags. The corpse was dressed in full uniform, and enshrouded in the regimental flag of the seventy-first. Wreaths and bouquets of flowers were placed at the head and feet, and upon the body was a beautifully wrought laurel wreath, presented by the President of the United States, whilst across the coffin lay the sword, belt, and fatigue cap, of the deceased.

The quarters of the soldiers were tastefully draped in mourning by the men, who were engaged during the morning in this festooning the windows and entrances of the several buildings they occupy. Over the entrance to the quarters of the engineer corps attached to this regiment were the words, "We mourn our loss," surrounded on either side with the insignia peculiar to this branch of the service.

As the hour approached for the procession to form, the New York twelfth, the Rhode Island, the New York sixty-ninth, and a company of marines, arrived at the yard, and took their proper positions as escort.

At twelve o'clock, the coffin containing the remains of the deceased was brought out and placed in the enclosure in front of the quarters, the seventy-first being drawn up in line immediately in front, the New York twelfth and two companies of United States marines, accompanied by the marine band, took up a position in front of the barracks, outside of the yard.

The impressive burial service of the Episcopal church was then performed by chaplain Pierce, of the seventy-first regiment, assisted by Rev. Dr. Moreau, of Christ church, and by Rev. Dr. Butler, of Trinity church; at the close of which, the following hymn, composed and set to music by H. H. Millard, the celebrated tenor singer, (of Company A.) was sung by the entire regiment, accompanied by the band:

"In Memoriam" of A. S. Vosburgh, late Colonel of the Seventy-first Regiment, N. Y. S. M.

Hush! our Colonel lies in slumber,
Folded close in Death's cold arms;
Never more he'll join our number,
Never more hear war's alarms.
Frank by nature—brave and loyal—
Dearly loved and prized was he;
Now his breath is more than royal—
In our hearts enshrined he'll be.

Never more the drum's swift beating,
Nor the clarion trumpet shrill,
Shall arouse him from his sleeping,
And his breast with armor fill.
He was loved by all his brothers
In the camp—more more than he;
Everything he shared with others,
Now we claim "his memory."

And the Seventy-first will cherish
All his virtues, all his aims.
If in battle we should perish,
Doing what stern duty claims,
He will gaze with satisfaction,
Smiling as he used to smile,
To reward our noble action,
And be proud of us the while.

Wrap our glorious flag around him,
Let the stripes and stars be seen,
Whilst his comrades surround him,
Swearing to "keep his memory green";
Then will his proud soul elate him
Higher still, to camps above,
Where the angel-warriors wait him,
And a sword of perfect love.

Upon the conclusion of the religious services, the cortege moved off to the depot in the following order, the military all carrying their arms reversed:

Rhode Island regiment, Colonel Burnside—staff officers all mounted.
Rhode Island Regimental band, Professor Green, and drum corps.
Detachment of United States marines, under Lieutenant Fendall.
New York twelfth regiment, Colonel Butterfield.

Twelfth regiment band, Professor Withers, and drum corps.
Carriage containing the clergy.
Hearse containing the remains of the deceased, under the guard of honor, consisting of Captain Dahlgren, United States navy; Lieutenant Colonel Heinzelman, United States army; Colonel Burns of the New York twenty-eighth regiment; Lieutenant Colonel Berger, of the fifth; Colonel Woods, of the fourteenth; and Colonel Bryan, of the twenty-fifth.

Carriages containing the relatives of the deceased.
Regimental band of the seventy-first regiment, Professor Dodsworth, and drum corps.
Seventy-first regiment, with side arms, Lieutenant Colonel Martin.

Carriage containing the President of the United States, and Secretaries Seward, Chase, and Cameron.
New York sixty-ninth regiment, Colonel Corcoran.

Carriages containing the officers of the army, navy, and volunteer soldiery.

The cortege was over a mile in length, and presented a most imposing appearance. As the procession passed the marine barracks, on Garrison street, the soldiers stationed there were drawn up in line and presented arms, the marine band playing a solemn and impressive dirge.

The procession marched by way of Pennsylvania avenue and First street to the depot, where a large concourse of people had assembled to witness the departure of the remains. The various regiments were here drawn up in line, and the hearse and carriages passed through, the different bands playing a solemn dirge as they passed.

The remains were then placed in a car and sent to New York in charge of the following companies: Captain A. F. Miller, of Company H; Quartermaster E. J. Seelye; Sergeant Major H. F. Liebman; Left Guide F. B. Shelley; Orderly Sergeant Frank Jones, of Company A; Sergeant G. B. Cochran, of Company C; and Corporals C. B. Pearce and E. Thorn, of Company F.

The various regiments then returned to their respective quarters.

COURT MARTIAL.—A court martial, composed of officers of the District militia, has been sitting in Ayler's building, corner of Seventh street and Pennsylvania avenue, during the past two or three days, for the trial of several of our volunteers, charged with insubordination and disobedience of orders.

ARRIVAL OF TROOPS.—The second regiment of New York arrived in a special train about half past one o'clock yesterday, and immediately marched to the quarters provided for them in the Colonization building, and opposite the National Hotel. They left New York about eleven o'clock on Monday, and came direct through Baltimore, where they were well received. They number about nine hundred and fifty men, who are neatly uniformed and equipped. The uniform is the blue army cap, dark blue jacket, and light-blue pantaloons with a white stripe. They bring with them four brass howitzers and a field piece, which are worked by the howitzer corps of the regiment, numbering seventy-five men, under Captain Mott. An engineer corps, numbering twenty-five men, are also attached to the regiment. A crack drum corps of twenty-two pieces accompanies them.

The following is a list of the officers of the regiment:

Col. S. W. B. Tompkins; Lieut. Col. John H. Wilcox; Major, J. J. Dunsmuir; Adjutant, A. V. Reed; Special Aid, Capt. Joseph Byrne; Quartermaster, H. R. Foote; Assistant Quartermaster, Clinton Berry; Surgeon, Alfred Powell; Assistant Surgeon, George Ferguson; Commissary, Coffin; Ordnance officer, John Armour; Paymaster, W. H. Newman; Captain of Engineers, E. H. Sage; Chaplain, W. H. Reynolds; Acting Chaplain, Alfred Stevens.

The company officers are:

THE POST OFFICE FLAG.—To-day, at twelve o'clock, the flag will be raised on the General Post Office Department. It is expected that the ceremonies will be of a very interesting character. The following is the programme for the occasion:

The military will form on E street.

Scas of the most talented vocalists in the city have volunteered to sing on the occasion.

Music by the band.

Hoisting of the flag.

Speech by Hon. Montgomery Blair.

Music.

A cordial invitation is extended to the military.

The male public schools of the second district, with banners, flags, &c., will be in attendance, and the male public schools of other districts will be welcomed.

COMMENDABLE.—We are informed that many of the chaplains of the several regiments of soldiers now in our city, as well as the eight battalions of our own troops, have had the courtesies and services of the Rev. Robert Keelen, acting chaplain to our own troops, extended to them, and all by the good judgment of Gen. Mansfield. It is understood that this clergyman is well qualified for the position of chaplain, having himself risen from the ranks to be a staff officer, and therefore it is hoped that the proper authorities may appreciate his faithful and needed services, and commission him. Surprised has been felt that our own three regiments of men should be destitute of a chaplain, when some of the regiments from abroad have two chaplains to one regiment. It is desirable that the morals of our men may be preserved by all proper influences.

NURSES.—Through the exertions of Miss Dix, a number of nurses have been engaged in the hospitals for the troops. In the Capitol Hill hospital, Mrs. Heald, of this city, and a young lady from Salem, Massachusetts, are unceasing in their endeavors to make comfortable the unfortunate soldiers who are brought there for medical attendance.

It is rumored that three of the New York Fire Zouaves, the other day, went down to Alexandria, and took down a secession flag. On its coming to the hearing of their Colonel, he had the affair investigated; when one of them unwound about nine feet of secession bunting from his body, and showed it to the Colonel.

A friend of the soldiers quartered at Caspar's, on Capitol Hill, inquires if they cannot be permitted to sleep on mattresses, as many of them are having their health impaired by sleeping on a damp floor in the basement of the building.

The presentation of the flag to the seventh regiment, which was to have taken place yesterday afternoon at Camp Cameron, did not come off, on account of the flag not having arrived from New York.

The Michigan regiment, Colonel Wilcox, were out on drill yesterday afternoon. They presented a very fine appearance, and went through every movement with the greatest precision and promptitude.

GOING INTO CAMP.—Yesterday afternoon, two companies of the fourteenth (Brooklyn) regiment marched out to the estate of Jesse B. Haw, bordering on the boundary line west of Seventh street, and pitched their tents for an encampment. The other companies will probably follow to-day.

The two Pennsylvania regiments in the Assembly Rooms and the Inauguration Hall-room expect to go into camp to-day, if they succeed in procuring the equipment. We hear that the ground chosen for the encampment is in the neighborhood of Glenwood.

Before the end of the week, it is expected that nearly all the regiments now located in the city will be encamped on the suburbs.

HURRAH FOR TENNALLYTOWN.—That "crack" company, the District Union Rifles, of Tennallytown, yesterday afternoon raised a large Union flag, on a pole about seventy feet high, with appropriate ceremonies. There was a great gathering of the farmers and others, residing in that vicinity, and much enthusiasm manifested.

LEVY COURT.—A meeting of this court was held on Monday, at which appropriations amounting to several thousand dollars were made to repair and improve county roads.

Isaac Marshall, Pierce Klenge, Enos Ray, Alfred Ray, W. Chandler Gregg, Russell Friaby, Nutey Morland, Mark Howland, Thos. Brown, A. C. P. Shoemaker, Will. Arnold, H. N. Easby, Allan Dodge, John Lightner, Jesse Harsh-man, Joseph T. Jenkins, Pearce Shoemaker, Charles R. Belt, Henry Queen, and L. Wetzel, were appointed supervisors on county roads.

The assessment heretofore made, imposing a tax of one-eighth of one per cent. on the real and personal property in the county, was repealed, and an assessment of one-sixth of one per cent. was then imposed on all taxable property in the county for the year ending December, 1862.

The court then adjourned until the first Monday in July, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

At a large meeting of the unconditional Union men of the Seventh ward, the following nominations for ward officers were made: For Alderman, Thomas E. Lloyd; for Common Council, William J. Murtagh, John T. Given, and Charles Wilson.

William J. Murtagh, John R. Elvans, Wm. P. Wood, George W. Garrett, and G. W. Good, all were elected delegates to the Unconditional Union Convention to nominate city officers.

LITERARY REUNION.—The Columbian Lyceum, of this city, which has been in a disorganized state for some time past, on account of the national troubles, had a reunion in the lecture room of the Assembly's Church last evening, when quite a large number of ladies and gentlemen were present. Addresses, of a very eloquent and impressive character, were delivered; the first, "The Past—its Influence upon the Present," by Mr. William W. Bennett, of New York; and the second, "Isabella of Castile," by Mr. Frank R. Larkin, of this city.

ACCIDENTS.—Yesterday, as E. J. D. Black, private in company E, fourteenth New York regiment, was drawing a load from his musket, he accidentally shot himself, the ball entering the right breast, and passing through his body, came out behind the shoulder. He was immediately removed to the hospital near the Capitol, where every attention is being paid to him. The wound is a very serious one, and the probabilities are that he will not recover.

A member of one of the Connecticut regiments, about nine o'clock last evening, was accidentally shot by his revolver exploding, the ball inflicting a slight wound in his side.

A member of one of the New York regiments shot himself in the thumb while cleaning his revolver.

Naturalized citizens who are guilty of perjury in renouncing their fealty to the United States, whose Constitution they have sworn to support, and who were only citizens by virtue of that oath, of course lose all claim to citizenship and protection as citizens of the United States. We are gratified to learn that the State Department is acting with eminent propriety in granting no foreign passports to residents of the seceded States, unless upon proof of loyalty.

Don't forget the fine band of the Michigan regiment performs in the President's grounds at five o'clock this afternoon.

SENT TO JAIL.—Hanna, who was taken as a spy in the camp of the N. J. regiment, has been sent to jail, on order from Brigadier General Runyon, of the N. J. brigade, committing him to the custody of the Marshal of the District until further orders. It is said that Hanna was the postmaster at Newark, New Jersey, during Pierce's and almost the whole of Buchanan's Administration. A few months ago, he suddenly disappeared and went South, since which time nothing has been seen of him until he was recognized in the New Jersey camp and arrested.

DISMISSED.—John Lane, the driver of the omnibus which ran over and killed the son of Mr. George Burns, on Saturday afternoon, was dismissed by Justice Donn yesterday, there being no evidence to justify the sending of the case to court.

RELEASED.—Mr. C. G. Grammer, who was arrested on Saturday afternoon, for using treasonable language in the presence of the Pennsylvania soldiers, and who has since been confined in jail, was released yesterday morning by order of the Commanding General. Previous to leaving, he took the following oath: "I, A. B., do solemnly swear on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America, and that I will support the Constitution thereof." Mr. G. expressed his regret at having to take the oath, as it would infer that he had not always borne true faith and allegiance to the United States.

The trial of Woods, who was arrested in the New Jersey camp, will be heard by Justice Donn to-day. The evidence in these cases is made up by the Justice, and transmitted to General Mansfield.

Mr. Leopold Schmidt, Vice Consul of Prussia, is a private in the seventh New York regiment, now at Washington. His father, the well-known and venerable Consul General of Prussia, Baden, &c., J. W. Schmidt, is as enthusiastic in the cause of the Union.

In America, the liver is the best abused of all the organs in the body. It is made the saddle of all other organs. As a consequence, it is often out of order and not infrequently nearly inoperative. This need not be; on the contrary, it is quite unnecessary. A little common sense, and a sufficiency of Grealy's Bitter, will keep the liver right, and make many a man and woman now miserable, quite happy. The Bitters regulate and strengthen the liver, no less than purify it. They enable that important organ to perform its functions, and without this is done no person can be healthy. For diseases of the stomach and bowels, fever and ague, debility, or any weakness of the system, these Bitters are unsurpassed. For sale everywhere by druggists and grocers.

This stock will bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first days of January and July in each year, and will be reimbursable in twenty years from the first day of January last.

The proposals must state the sum offered for each hundred dollars of stock, and must be for one or more thousands of dollars, without fractions. One per cent. of the amount offered must be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States at Washington, or with an assistant treasurer at Boston, Philadelphia, or New York, subject to the order of the Secretary of the Treasury; and the certificate showing such deposit must accompany the offer. The act reserves to the Secretary the right to decline bids not regarded as advantageous to the United States.

The amounts payable under the accepted offers for this loan must be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States, or an assistant treasurer at Boston, New York, or Philadelphia, on or before the twenty-fifth day of May now current; but if any accepted bidder shall desire to deposit at any other point, his request will be considered.

On the receipt here of the proper certificates, showing such deposits, certificates of inscribed stock will be issued to the successful bidders or their assigns, for the amounts to which they shall be entitled, in sums of one thousand, five thousand, and ten thousand dollars each, as may be required. Inscribed stock so issued will carry interest from the date of such deposit, and will be transferable on the books of the Treasury, agreeably to the regulations of the Department.

Should any accepted bidder desire certificates of stock, with coupons of semi-annual interest attached thereto, they will be issued accordingly, in sums of one thousand dollars each, with coupons attached for interest from the first day of July next.
